

Programme

Day 1 – Wednesday, 4 April 2018

- 09.00: Welcome to the workshop and to Edinburgh (Matt Gubbins/Marine Scotland)
Introduction of the organising partners (MUSES/Marine Scotland/ICES WG)
Brief introduction of participants
- 09.30 An introduction to coexistence and synergy, the challenges they pose to MSP and the previous work of the WGMPCZM (Eirik Mikkelsen, Kira Gee)
- 10.00 Purpose and practical organization of workshop (Eirik Mikkelsen/Kira Gee)
- 10.30 Session 1: Coexistence and synergies in different settings and MSP processes.
Presentation of case studies (15 min each)
- Wind and wave energy coexistence (Chris McConville)
 - Coastal tourism coexistence in Adriatic Sea (Andrea Barbanti)
- Coffee
- MSP experience in Bulgaria (Ivo Yotsov)
 - (n.n.)
- Plenary discussion focusing on types of coexistence and synergies, benefits of multi-use, and the role of context.
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Session 2: An MSP perspective on coexistence and synergies
Presentation of 4 case studies (15 min each)
- MSP and ocean energy (Rebecca Kavanagh)
 - Offshore wind and commercial fisheries in Scotland (Andronikos Kafas)
 - Coastal tourism as multi-use driver in the Adriatic (Emiliano Ramieri/Martina Bocci)
 - Synergy/conflict analyses and resolving in the Baltic (Andrea Morf)
- Group work on the MSP process and its role in achieving coexistence and synergies (with coffee break), followed by plenary discussion.
- 17.30 End of the day
- 19.30 Joint dinner (Participants' own expense)

Day 2 – Thursday 5 April 2018

- 9.00 Recap of Day 1 (Eirik Mikkelsen/Kira Gee)
- 9.15 Session 3: How to facilitate coexistence and synergies
Presentation: Towards Multi-Use in European Seas and the MUSES Action Plan (Ivana Lukic)
- 9.45 Brief plenary discussion

10.15 Presentation of case studies (15 min each)

- From strategic planning to licences for aquaculture and offshore wind in Norway and Scotland (Anne-Michelle Slater)
- Marine main functional zoning in China (Tao Wang/Rui Zhao)

Coffee

- Aquaculture and uncertainty in knowledge based management (Maiken Bjørkan)
- MSP through good government and governance (Dickon Howell)

Plenary discussion

12.30 Lunch

14.00 Session 3 continued: How to facilitate coexistence and synergies

Group work

15.45 Plenary discussion and summary of Day 2

17.30 End of the day

Day 3 – Friday 6 April 2018

9.00 Session 4: Tying it all together

Interactive sessions on:

- Types of coexistence and synergies.
- Important factors of the MSP process to achieve coexistence and synergies.
- Actively promoting coexistence and synergies in MSP.

12.00 Summary of the workshop, evaluation and next steps

13.00 Lunch and depart