Theme Session on Marine mammals, seabirds, and fisheries:
ecosystem effects and advice provision (L)

Code Number	Title	Author(s)	Keywords
ICES CM 2006/L:01	Modelling and mapping trophic overlap between seabirds and marine fisheries on a global scale	Vasiliki Karpouzi , R. Watson, and D. Pauly	seabird – fisheries interactions, trophic overlap, at-sea distribution, seabird food consumption
ICES CM 2006/L:02	Is harp seal predation an important consideration for recovery of the Northern Gulf of St. Lawrence cod population?	Daniel E. Duplisea and Mike Hammill
ICES CM 2006/L:03	Using models to investigate a harbour porpoise bycatch problem in the southern North Sea – eastern Channel in spring 2005	Jan Haelters , Thierry Jauniaux, Francis Kerckhof, José Ozer, and Serge Scory	Phocoena , harbour porpoise, bycatch, southern North Sea, eastern Channel, models, multidisciplinary research
ICES CM 2006/L:04	Abundance of harbour porpoise and other small cetaceans in European Atlantic continental shelf waters	P.S. Hammond and K. Macleod	abundance, bycatch, harbour porpoise, small cetaceans, line transect surveys.
ICES CM 2006/L:05	Modeling trophic interactions between parental common murrens and capelin off the northeast Newfoundland coast	A. D. Buren , M. Koen-Alonso, W. A. Montevecchi, J. T. Anderson, B. deYoung, and G. K. Davoren	common murre, capelin, trophic model.
ICES CM 2006/L:06 - Abstract	Management procedure for determining appropriate limits to the bycatch of small cetaceans in the European Atlantic and North Sea	Arliss J. Winship , Per Berggren, and Philip S. Hammond	bycatch, conservation, harbour porpoise, management procedure, North Sea, simulation testing, small cetacean
ICES CM 2006/L:07	Spatial and seasonal distribution patterns of harbour porpoises in the German Bight of the North Sea – which abiotic factors influence the distribution?	A. Gilles , K. Kaschner, R. Mundry, M. Scheidat, and U. Siebert	aerial survey, harbour porpoise, abundance estimates, distribution, habitat prediction.
ICES CM 2006/L:08	Prey consumption by Barents Sea harp seals in the period 1990–2005	Tore Haug , Ulf Lindstrøm, and Kjell T. Nilssen,	Barents Sea, harp seals, diet, consumption.
ICES CM 2006/L:09	Finding the cause of bycatch of Atlantic white-sided dolphins (Lagenorhynchus acutus) by pelagic trawlers: following the biological approach	A.S. (Bram) Couperus , Cindy J.G. van Damme, and Huygen van Steen	Atlantic white-sided dolphin, Lagenorhynchus acutus , diet, bycatch, discards, mackerel.
ICES CM 2006/L:10 –	Withdrawn

Code Number	Title	Author(s)	Keywords
ICES CM 2006/L:11	Withdrawn
ICES CM 2006/L:12	Marine turtles observations in different Spanish fisheries (1993–2005)	Santiago Lens	marine turtles, fisheries, monitoring schemes, incidental catches
ICES CM 2006/L:13 – Poster - Abstract	Pregnancy rate in the short-beaked common dolphin Delphinus delphis in the North-east Atlantic	Sinéad Murphy , S. P. Northridge, P. D. Jepson, R. Deaville, R. J. Reid, E. Rogan, M. Silva, M. Sequeira, R. Lago Garza, and A. López
ICES CM 2006/L:14	Gray seal (Halichoerus grypus) diet composition in Nantucket Sound, U.S. as inferred from fecal remains	Ampela, K. and A. Ferland	gray seal, Halichoerus grypus , otoliths, bones, diet estimation, feces, scat, stomach contents, fishery interactions.
ICES CM 2006/L:15	Fishing activity in the German Bight (SE North Sea) and its influence on distribution and habitat use of Larus gulls	Philipp Schwemmer , N. Markones, and S. Garthe	seabird, scavenger, discards, distribution, German Bight, North Sea
ICES CM 2006/L:16	Spatial patterns and temporal trends in discard use by seabirds in the North Sea and Baltic Sea	Stefan Garthe	seabird, scavenger, discards, North Sea, Baltic Sea.
ICES CM 2006/L:17	Integrating scientific studies and monitoring results into advice in the German EEZ	Søren Anker Pedersen and Christian Pusch	Natura 2000, Fisheries management, MPA, Ecosystem Approach
ICES CM 2006/L:18 – Poster - Abstract	Stranding of a humpback whale (Megaptera novaeangliae) on the Belgian coast	T. Jauniaux. , C. Brenez, J. Haelters, T. Jacques, J. Ozer, S. Scory, and F. Coignoul	humpback whale, Megaptera novaeangliae , ship strike, pathology, southern North Sea.
ICES CM 2006/L:19 – Poster	Influence of fisheries discards and environmental variables on seabirds in northern Spanish waters (Cantabrian Sea).	Esther Abad , X. Valeiras, A. Serrano, F. Sánchez, I. Preciado, and I. Olaso	seabirds, fisheries, discards, Cantabrian Sea, feeding ecology.
