BANOS DIALOGUE SESSION: The needs of the future Baltic and North Sea Research and Innovation Programme

ICES Annual Science Conference, Gothenburg, 11 September 2019, Room G1

Session moderators

Mark Dickey-Collas, ICES

Karoliina Koho, BONUS Secretary; BANOS CSA Project Officer

Panelists

Lisette Enserink, Rijkswaterstaat (Water, Transport and Environment), the Netherlands

Christoph Humborg, Stockholm University, Sweden

Dennis Lisbjerg, Technical University of Denmark (DTU AQUA), Denmark

Stuart Reeves, Centre for Environment, Fisheries and Aquaculture Science (Cefas), the United Kingdom

Ulla-Li Zweifel, Baltic Marine Environment Protection Commission - Helsinki Commission (HELCOM)

Preliminary Session Outline

16:30 – 16:40   Introduction and Scope of BANOS (Andris Andrusaitis, Acting Executive Director of BONUS Programme, Coordinator of BANOS CSA)

16:40 - 16:45   National Priorities (Karoliina Koho)

16:45 – 16:55   Introduction of the Panel (approx. 1-minute pitch by each panelist, including who are they and what are their expertise)

16:55- 17:50   Interactive Panel Discussion

Theme 1 Critical drivers of change in marine ecosystem functioning under the changing climate

Panelist: Lisette Enserink, Ulla-Li Zweifel, Christoph Humborg

Theme 2 Ensuring sustainable future fishing practices: identification knowledge bottlenecks for improved management

Panelist: Dennis Lisbjerg, Stuart Reeves

Theme 3 Modelling for successful management of marine environment

Panelist: Christoph Humborg, Ulla-Li Zweifel

Theme 4 Role of aquaculture in securing future demand in seafood without disregarding sustainable management

Panelist: Dennis Lisbjerg, Stuart Reeves

17:50 – 18:00   Wrap-up and Conclusions (Mark Dickey-Collas)

Contact for further information:
Karoliina Koho
Project Officer
Baltic and North Sea Coordination and Support Action (BANOS CSA)
BONUS EEIG, Hakaniemenranta 6, 00530 Helsinki, Finland
Mob. +358 40 545 9605
Email karoliina.koho@bonuseeig.fi
Web: www.banoscsa.org
Twitter www.twitter.com/BANOS_CSA